Yanks Ald French in Manning craft Guns in Protecting Hou in Picardy - Won't Ex Certain Deaths in Army

With the American Army in June 5.—An American comb engaged in a desperate fight large enemy patrol near And in the Luneville sector. The losses were slight. The Gern alties are not known.

The Americans discovered man patrol and endeavored to and capture the enemy. Du fight the Americans found the being surrounded by over ming numbers, but managed to themselves and retire fighting while. It is believed certain ishment was inflicted upon the by the grenades and rifle fir-Americans, American Victor in Air F Lieut. Sumner Sewall of H. Me., shot down an enemy two-sei d airplane inside the American line northwest of Toul, after a thrilling aght in which six German and three planes participated.

One of the American patrol flights vas intercepted and attacked. For 15 minutes the machine guns rattled and many soldiers on the ground stood and watched the maneuvers of the aircraft. They saw one enemy leave the formation and an American chaser pounce

What remained of the enemy plane was taken to Toul and set up in the square of the town on exhibition.

In three other flights today German nachines were driven off. In this ighting the American pilots believe they got at least one enemy biplane. Hospital Raiders Kept Off.

With the American Army in Picardy, June 5.—The Americans aided the French for the first time in manning antiaircraft guns in villages in Picardy and kept up a terrific barrage when enemy aircraft again attempted a bomb-hospitals and peaceful homes of civilians. One German airplane is reported to have been brought down in the Bombs were dropped again near sevican sick and wounded were lying. The enemy artillery and machine guns are active around Cantigny, but all efforts to capture the village have been frustrated.

An enemy patrol was fired on early in the morning by an American patrol. One German was killed and the body brought in. The American artillery continued to harass the enemy; a fire was observed on Montdidier.

Enemy aircraft have been particularly active in this sector. They have done no military damage, but continue nightly raids on villages, behind the lines, bombing promiscuously. Fortunately, most of the bombs have dropped in fields.

Not to Explain Certain Deaths. Washington, June 5.- Deaths among the expeditionary forces as a result of accidents, suicide, homicidal attack and military execution hereafter will be included in the casualty lists under the heading "Accidents and other causes," Secretary Baker announced today after consulting his advisers as to whether the exact cause of death should be made public in each case. Officials were unanimously against such action, holding that it would humiliate unnecessarily the friends and relatives of men who die as a result

The war department in these cases notifies the nearest relative privately that the soldier died on the a date in France, adding that the opartment regrets to advise against by further inquiry into the cause of doth. If the Memphis. - Thirty-one red-blooded Americans felt the call to arms in support of the liberty of their country, and applied at the local recruiting station, 20 of them joining the marines and 11 of them chosing service in the navy. Of the 20 men accepted by the marines nine were University of Mississippi students who had just finished the spring term at the university and had caught the first train into Memphis to file their applications that they might be called on immediately to serve on the front. Four of this number were graduates of the school this year.

Nashville.-Bishop W. A. Candler, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. South, in speaking of the centenary of of American missions, said: "The Centenary celebration of American missions is timely and inspiring. It is fitting that this centenary celebration should be observed, and in view of all that has been done in the past one hundred years, and all that ought to be done now, it is to be hoped that hoarded treasures will yield under the inspiration of the celebration.

Nashville.—Tennessee will furnish 17,167 men under the new national call as of June, which has been received from Washington by Maj. Rutledge Smith, executive officer. SUBS HERE 2 MONTHS

Sink Ships or Come Back, Is Order From Berlin.

Captain of One Diver Says He Hates to Hold Up American Schooners.

Atlantic City, June 5.—The 36 survivors of the steamship Texel, which was sunk Sunday afternoon 60 miles south of New York by two German submarines, left here for New York. Arriving here in two leaky boats and almost exhausted from their pull for shore, the members of the crew told stirring tales, Capt. R. K. Lowry of Brooklyn, a former Girard college boy in Philadelphia, told how the Texel, representing a value of more than $2,000,000, was torpedoed and sunk. "The first warning we had," said Captain Lowry, "was when a shrapnel burst over the bridge at 4:20 on Sun day afternoon. Two submarines next drew alongside our ship. The captain, who spoke good English, boarded our boat, demanded our papers and ordered us to leave the ship. The guns of his U-boat were kept trained on us." After the submarine commander had taken over the Texel, Captain Lowry reported that the captor said: "I hate like --- to do this, but we have been ordered to get into action or return home. We have been over fessed, and the cause set for hearing ex parte as to them.

This notice will be published in the Knoxville Independent for four manned two boats and everybody was here for two months." saved. When we were leaving, one submarine nearly crashed into us. The captain shouted and waved us back to.
